TEXAS STATE PTA AWARDS MY PAYMENT NETWORK CONTRACT TO DELIVER eCOMMERCE TO ITS MEMBERSHIP

Association Gains State-Level Insight and Reporting Into Membership Payments

SAUSALITO, Calif. December 18, 2007 –My Payment Network, Inc., creator of School Payment Network, announced that they have been awarded a contract by Texas State PTA to provide eCommerce services to its membership. The new partnership will make the easy-to-use eCommerce solution, SchoolPay available to Texas State PTA's for processing membership fees and other payments.

"This agreement with Texas State PTA is exciting for us. Texas State PTA is a leader among state PTA's and an innovative adopter of technology. Our name contains the work "network" because we built our school payment solutions to scale to the state level. We are thrilled to have been awarded this contract," said David Dunaway, President and CEO of My Payment Network.

Isaac Simon, Director of Marketing and Fund Development added, "We needed a robust eCommerce solution that was also easy to use. My Payment Network's partnership with Parent Teacher Network, our provider for PTA websites, added to their appeal; as well as their ability to provide state-level reporting. We're looking forward to rolling the offer out to our membership."
